3) Letter No 2174-8/354 of the 6th Aug April 1904 from the I Gl of Edn and Education Reporting that the 2nd batch of 96 of 1903 of 5 School masters have been se-3 to be selected to undergo training at the in the Tata's Silk Farm Dharwar the 6 months from 1st April 1904 -

The period first fixed for the training of these teachers was only 3 months; but in the case of the 1st batch it was extended to 6 months at the Recommendation of the I Gl and the Supdt of the Farm The I Gl states that ~~the~~ ~~two fixed~~ the term of the 2nd batch will also be for 6 months.

Govt have not formally Subd extended the period of training Vide in all cases from 3 to 6 31/1901 months, but any that may first-batch - Such extension seems however to be necessary if the training is to be complete, and I therefore be appro no additional cost to fun- w
